Subject: 2016-5-19 - ADEQ guidance having AGO or ADEQ attorney when other parties have legal counsel on calls and meetings - tlp

Wayne-

Regarding your questions —

(1) with respect to having ADEQ legal or AZ Attorney General Office personnel present when other parties have legal counsel present — yes a requirement

(2) Do I continue to participate if no ADEQ legal team member is present? - you let them know why you will not be participating then you do not participate

Please let Williams/AMEC know that for ADEQ to participate, the AGO must also be present or on the call.

Thanks,

Subject: 2016-5-19 - Can you provide ADEQ management guidance having AGO or ADEQ attorney present when other parties have legal counsel on calls and meetings

Can you please provide ADEQ management perspective/opinion (1) with respect to having ADEQ legal or AZ Attorney General Office personnel present when other parties have legal counsel present (2) Do I continue to participate if no ADEQ legal team member is present?

AMEC Foster Wheeler (US Air Force Consultant) legal counsel announced that from today onward AMEC Counsel would be listening in on all Williams Air Force Base (WAFB) Closure Team (BCT) calls and meetings. Neither ADEQ or EPA were given notice.

Is there a protocol/procedure or permission needed for ADEQ to continue participating in meetings? Harry was of the opinion ADEQ did not participate. Anthony Young (AGO) just got back to me indicating that ADEQ Counsel presence is more of an ADEQ management call.

Appreciate the input. As far as I know, no legal or hot button issues are on the agenda today. We have a 1PM – to 3PM call this afternoon.
